An invitation to participate in Professional Identity in Nursing Survey (PINS) 2.0—complete by May 20!

Here is your opportunity to advance PINS instrument development. All RNs are invited to participate. Deadline: May 20.

Dear RN Colleagues,

My name is Tullamora Landis and I am an Assistant Professor with the Washington State University, College of Nursing.

The questions in this survey cover the four domains related to Professional Identity in Nursing: Values and Ethics, Knowledge, Leadership, and Professional Comportment that met the 95% cutoff in the previous version of the scale.

The short survey will take 5-10-minutes to complete.

The survey can be accessed from any computer 24 hours per day/7 days per week. All RN colleagues are invited to participate.

Participation in this study is completely voluntary. If you refuse to participate there will be no penalty to you as the participant. You may discontinue your participation as any time without penalty. Your participation in this study is confidential and anonymous. The anonymous collection of information ensures your confidentiality since there is no link between the data collected and you.

For further information about this survey, please contact Primary Investigator(s) Dr. Tullamora Landis, tullamora.diede@wsu.edu or Dr. Cynthia Clark, cindy.clark@atitesting.com.

GO TO THE SURVEY.

Please note that for all web-based email, complete confidentiality cannot be assured.

Thank you,
Dr. Tullamora Landis and Dr. Cindy Clark
