

PROFESSIONAL IDENTITY IN NURSING: PROPELLING THE SCIENCE

Rhoda Owens PhD, RN
University of North Dakota

Lynne M Kuhl, MSN, RN
Viterbo University

Conference and Presentation Objectives

Describe the State of the Science of Professional Identity in Nursing

- Outline the Membership of Propelling the Science Workgroup
- Describe the Connection to the Strategic Plan
- Discuss the Workgroup Curation Plan
- Outline Progress of Propelling the Science Workgroup
- Discuss Next steps

Members

- Jane Carpenter
- Terri Hinkley
- Dawn Goodolf
- Julie Read
- Kristen Priddy
- Tullamora Diede

- Beth Phillips
- Cole Edmonson
- M. Lindell Joseph
- Kristi Frisbee
- Champion Nyoni
- Rhoda Owens
- Lynne M. Kuhl

Connection to Strategic Plan

- Establish committee
- Develop research agenda with goals/objectives with overview from governance
- Dialogue and thought: Professional Identity in Nursing conference and other ongoing activities
- *Finalize conceptual model with supportive hypotheses **
- *Demonstration project **
- Intentional thinking about collaboration and partnership with others

Curation Plan – Evolving Document

- Determine Current Research
- Connection to Theory, Philosophy and Empirical Research
- Implications of the Science of Professional Identity in Nursing

Progress

- Formation of Workgroup
- Research Presentations
- Connection to the Strategic Plan
- Connection to Curation Plan
- Determine Possibilities and Gaps

Next Steps

- Expand Membership better represent Breath of Nursing
- Current and Needed Research
 - Valid & Reliable Tool(s)
 - Quantitative, Qualitative, Mixed-methods Research
 - Expand Conceptual Definitions to included related concepts & bodies of knowledge

Next Steps - Continued

- Implications
 - Multi-site Research, International Research, Interdisciplinary Research
 - Intentional Partnerships with Practice, Academia, Interdisciplinary
 - Incubator for research and support as a Community

Thank You

Have a question or want to join this work group?

Rhoda Owens

rhoda.owens@und.edu

Lynne M Kuhl

lmkuhl@viterbo.edu